

High School vs College

Mindsets for College Success

As you can imagine, high schools and colleges vary significantly across the country. Thus, educational experiences can differ significantly from school to school and from student to student. As a result, keep that in mind as you gather opinions from others about your transition to college.

Below is a comparison chart that illustrates GENERAL differences between high school and college. The College reference is typical for a 4-year institution. Remember, YOU will need to form your own opinions and plan/adjust accordingly.

High School	College
Classes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Classes are arranged for you ❖ Classes meet daily ❖ Teachers monitor attendance ❖ Classes average less than 30 students ❖ You are given text books at little or no cost ❖ Courses to meet graduation requirements are relatively consistent 	Classes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ You arrange your classes ❖ Classes may meet just once a week ❖ Professors may not monitor attendance ❖ Classes may number 100 students or more ❖ You need to budget money for text books ❖ Courses to meet graduation requirements differ according to the program you study
Instructors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Have training in general teaching methods ❖ Provide information for your notes ❖ Remind you of assignments and due dates ❖ Provide you with the information you missed when you were absent ❖ Present material to help you understand the concepts in the text book ❖ Guide you through thought processes ❖ Approach you if they believe you need help ❖ Are available for conversation and assistance before, during, and/or after school 	Instructors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Have training in their area of expertise ❖ Expect you to identify key points for your notes ❖ Provide you with a syllabus so you can track assignments and due dates ❖ Count on you to get content for missed classes ❖ Encourage you to relate the material presented in class with the concepts in the text book ❖ Push you to think critically for yourself ❖ You initiate contact if you need help ❖ Are available for conversation and assistance during their specified office hours
Studying: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ The amount of time studying is comparable to the time spent in class ❖ Teachers allot class time for homework ❖ Your studying involves mainly material in your text book 	Studying: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ You should study at least 2 hours outside of class for each hour in class (ex. 3-credit hour class = 6 hours of review out of class) ❖ Math and Science require greater study time! ❖ Little (or no) class time is allotted for homework ❖ Your studying involves reading and writing assignments that are not in your text book
